Recruitment issues? Imagine having easy access to some of the best student programmers - hungry and talented youngsters who are interested in career opportunities at your company. CoDe Academy provides an unparalleled connection between the most qualified candidates and the most innovative companies.

The CoDe Academy is a 5-day bootcamp where engaged, skillful, competitive, and curious student programmers are taught all the basics of Continuous Delivery and Devops. They will learn the latest trends in software development giving you the perfect opportunity to achieve your talent recruitment and brand awareness goals with the next generation of technologists.

THE BENEFITS OF SPONSORING THE CODE ACADEMY

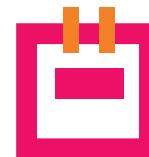

Establish presence and promote your organization among the brightest students and graduates. An opportunity to attract talent to your corporation. Spotlight your company by supporting young bright minds in Scandinavia.

Over the summer CoDe Academy will be traveling to four cities across Scandinavia. You can participate in just one city or sign up for the full tour:
